Navigating Copyright and Open Access for Teaching and Research
Annual Veterinary Medicine Mini-Symposium for Teaching, Learning, and Research
9 am - 2:30 pm, Thursday, October 15
Kohnstamm Conference, Administration Building, Grafton campus

www.regonline.com/09VetMiniSymp

Featured presentations:

Resolving Copyright: The Role of Fair Use and Other Strategies
Dwayne K. Butler, J.D, Professor University Libraries
Evelyn J. Schneider Endowed Chair for Scholarly Communication
University of Louisville

A Bird’s Eye View of Copyright and Open Access at Tufts
Anne Sauer, Director and University Archivist, Tufts Digital Collections and Archives

Managing your Own Copyrights - Author Rights and Open Access.
Margret Branschofsky, Director of Library Services and Information Technology,
Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine

Afternoon workshops:

Concept Mapping: An Approach to Meaningful Learning
Melanie St. James, Senior Interactive Media Designer, UIT

Assessing for Learning
Linda Jarvin, Director, CELT

Register now at: www.regonline.com/09VetMiniSymp

If you have questions, please contact Rebecca Sholes at rebecca.sholes@tufts.edu.